INTRODUCTION

Tap Pharmaceutical Products Inc.'s ("TAP") individual memorandum ("MTD") seeks the dismissal of claims against it because all claims relating to Lupron were barred by two settlement agreements. The first is a 2001 settlement with the State of New York ("2001 Settlement"). The second is a "nationwide class settlement" in the matter named In re: Lupron Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation, MDL 1430 ("2005 Settlement"). Contrary to defendant's assertions, plaintiffs have made sufficient allegations to sustain its claims against TAP.

ARGUMENT

Given the express terms of the 2001 Settlement, plaintiffs agree that their Lupron-related claims are barred through December 3, 2001.

TAP's motion, however, does not establish that plaintiffs post-2001 Lupron claims are barred. TAP says that the Counties are members of the 2005 Settlement class and that the Counties did not opt-out of this class and are thus bound by its release. TAP MTD at 2. But TAP provides no record support for this conclusion. The Final Order and Judgment that TAP submits as Exhibit B to its motion does not include a class definition. TAP cites other authority for the proposition that plaintiffs are part of the 2005 settlement class, but that authority similarly fails to define the class. See MTD at 3 citing class agreement at ¶2(t), relevant parts attached as Ex. C to the MTD, for the proposition that the Counties are class members. The authority defines what a "purchase" of Lupron is, not who is a member of the settling Lupron Class. See Exhibit C to the MTD at ¶2(t). Furthermore, plaintiffs have alleged the purchase of other TAP manufactured drugs, namely Prevacid and Prevpac Patient Packs. (See CC Ex. A, NSAC Ex. B). Since the scope of the aforementioned settlement agreements is limited only to claims related to Lupron, claims related to TAP's deceptive acts and practices with respect to other drugs should be permitted to go forward.

CONCLUSION

Since TAP fails to provide any support for its argument that plaintiffs' post December 3, 2001 claims have been released and since plaintiffs have alleged claims related to the purchase of drugs not covered by the settlement agreements, TAP's motion to dismiss these claims should be denied in its entirety.
